

Toni Miguel, Ph.D. is a consultant with Early Intervention Technical Assistance in the Pennsylvania Training and Technical Assistance Network. Her work focuses on supporting early childhood personnel to deliver high quality, inclusive, and equitable educational experiences for diverse young children. Her research interests include coaching, social-emotional development, and effective teacher education methods.